

The Navajo Nation

Strategic Directions

- 0 Walking In Beauty Into the 21st Century
- 0 Achieving Government Reform
- 0 Securing Financial Independence
- 0 Integrating Technology for the Future
- 0 Promoting Mutually Respected Partnerships

The Navajo Nation

Establish Navajo Nation IT Infrastructure Initiative

Under the leadership of President Kelsey Begaye:

- February 14th signed letter appointing industry telecommunications expert to advise Chief of Staff in the Office of President/Vice President
- February 14th to present - Chief of Staff/Advisor
 - Review of current state of Navajo Nation IT
 - Conferences with various industry leaders/vendors
 - Chief of Staff/Advisor organized IT initiative outline
 - Established cooperative links with following Corporate Foundations and/or Learning Centers

Nortel

Ericsson

Intel

Williams Communications

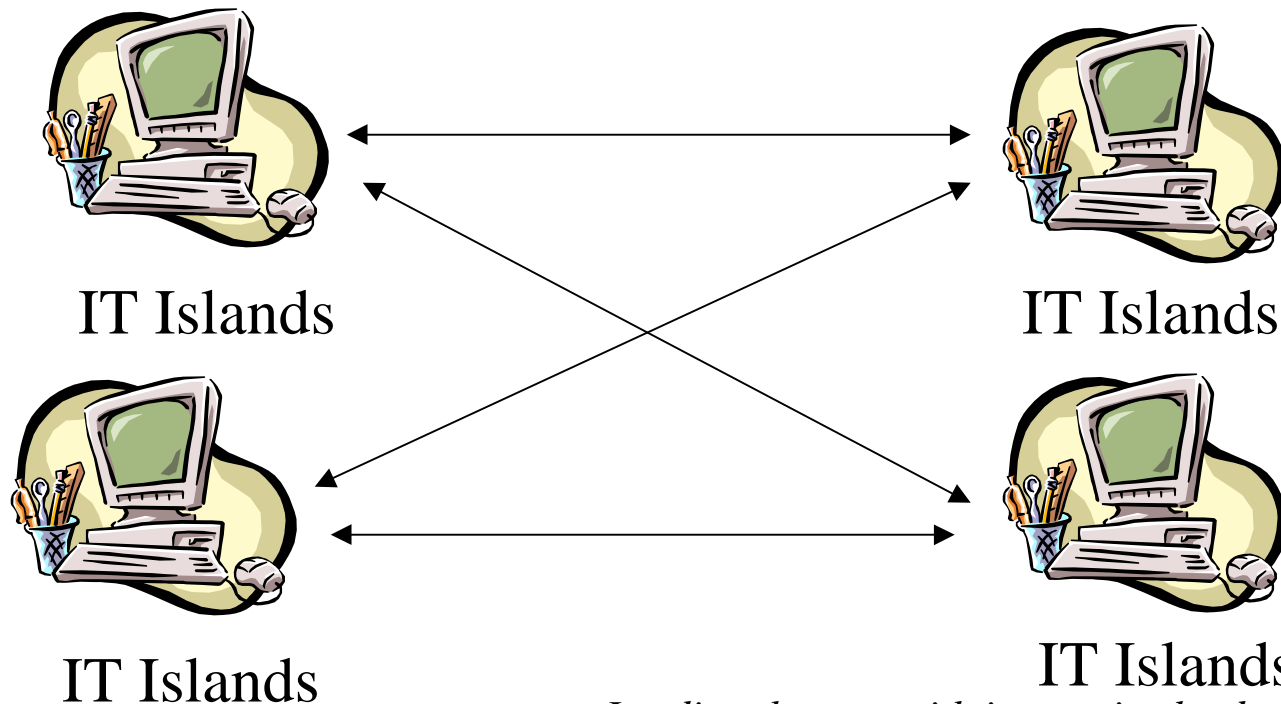

The Navajo Nation

Existing IT Infrastructure

No Standards or Protocols

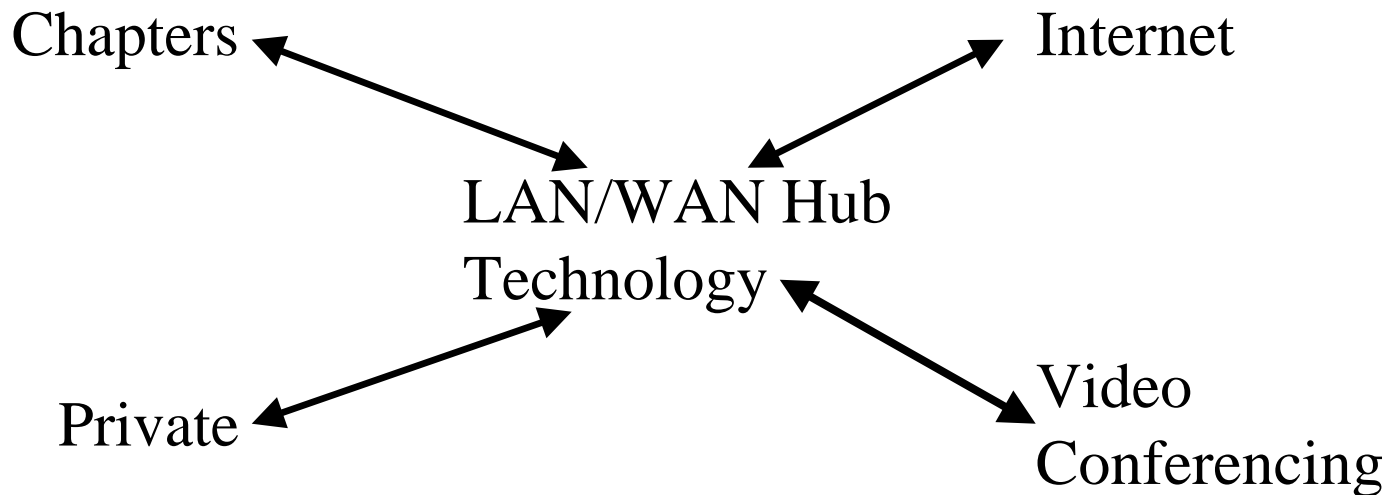

Inefficient

Counter Productive

The Navajo Nation

Planned Wireless IT Infrastructure

The Navajo Nation

Planned Wireless IT Infrastructure Benefits

Software Repository

Word Processing

Spreadsheet

Presentation

Faxing

Financial Management

Virtual Meetings

Central E-mail

Easy Secure Information

Sharing/Exchange

Tribal Ownership

Skilled Infrastructure

Independence

Self Maintained

Revenue Generation

Core Technology

The Navajo Nation

Improved Government Services

- Efficient timely communications with 110 Chapters
- Efficient coordination
- Partnership and alliances
- More Effective and Efficient Management

The Navajo Nation

Business Benefits

- Business can use wireless access for home page advertising e-commerce
- Secured sharing of information, documents, etc.
- Keeping abreast of current market trends and directions

The Navajo Nation

Learning Benefits

- Schools can use Internet learning from inside the building and outside campus
- Unlock access to enhanced learning and understanding
- Community centers and library hosting e-mail service
 - Internet for those that cannot afford computers/access
- Industry Foundation Certified Training
 - Training of technology provided via schools, technology centers, and Internet

The Navajo Nation

Improved and Enhanced Communications

- Wireless users communicating by voice and paging
- Roaming users providing revenue
- Emergency network providing 911 access for wireless
- More Effective and Efficient Management

The Navajo Nation

Together We can Succeed

- Securing Financial Independence
- Integrating Technology for the Future
- Promoting Mutually Respected Partnerships